v.	)
	)	DETENTION ORDER
ANGEL COLON-VARGAS,	)
	)
Defendant.	)
_____	)

Offense charged: Knowingly and Willfully Damaging Property of an Energy Facility

Date of Detention Hearing: Initial Appearance, August 17, 2007

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant is charged by Complaint in the District of Puerto Rico in Case No. 07-499(M). He has waived an identity hearing and an Order of Transfer has been signed. He reserves his right to request a preliminary examination in the charging district.

2. Defendant is believed to have been born in Puerto Rico, and to reside in Seattle, Washington. He was not interviewed by Pretrial Services. There is little additional information available about his background. He does not contest detention.

3. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to lack of available background information. He is not found to pose a risk of danger.

4. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
